AMUSEMENTS.

Woon's Theater—A house crowded to overflowing was the result of the announce-ment that Maggie Mitchell would appear in The French Spy and Bonnie Fish Wife, To-night she will appear in the comedy of The Maid with the Milking-pail and in Katy Shiel.

These pieces are well sdapted to bring out Maggie's peculiar versatility, and if they succeed in bringing out an audience, no fears need be entertained for the result.

PIKE'S OPERA HOUSE .- This wonderful temple of Thespis will, on Monday night next, be converted into a psychomanteum—a place where divinations are had by consulting the souls of the dead. The public will find Prof.
Anderson a mortal, and very clever in legerdemain; and so far as consulting dead men's souls is concerned, that is a point on which the audience will be enlightened on the opening night.

CONCERT FOR THE SOLDIERS -Tuesday night CONCERT FOR THE SOLDIERS.—Tuesday night next a concert will be given at Smith & Nixon's Hall, for the benefit of our sick and wounded soldiers, by Madame C. Rive, assisted by her sister, Mrs H. S. Kitchell, Miss T. S. Kitchell and a host of pupils. The proceeds will be placed in the hands of a committee who will see it is disbursed satisfactories.

THANKS to Wm. Rollston for the latest Chisgo papers.

Mas. Hanoven, 190 Fifth-street, between Eim and Plum, has just received a large quantity of nice black straw bonnets, and sells them at thirty five cents each; also, a ot of bats and flats of every style and price, rom thirty to fifty cents.

Busglasy and Asson.—On Friday night last the residence of Mr. W. Carey, at Col-lege Hill, was burned down. The house was vecant at the time, although a quantity of furniture still remained. From appearances, it was supposed that the house had been olundered and then set on fire. Yesterday morning, a negro living in the city was ar-rested for another offense, and a large quantity of clothing was found with him and identified as being in the house before it was consumed. He was held over on the charge of burglary and arson.

DIALOGUE .- Mrs. Jones-Where did you buy that nice silk bonnet, and so elegantly Miss Smith-At Mrs. Hanover's establish ent, 190 Fifth street, between Elm and Plum.

Mrs Jones—What did you pay?

Miss Smith—Only three dollars.

Mrs. Jones—O, dear me suz! Here is one have on; look at it. I paid $5, and it is not as good as yours.

Miss Smith-Well, next time you go to buy a bonnet you will know where to find them, nice and cheap.

Mrs. Jones-Yes, indeed I shall.

AMERICAN CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY The annual meeting of the American Chris-tian Missionary Society commenced, as here-tofore announced, in the Christian Chapel on the corner of Eighth and Walnut-streets, yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very large, comprising many of the Eiders and laity of the church from abroad. The usual religious exercises have occupied the attention of the meeting thus far. Several prominent elders have par icipated in the proceed-1998. Last evening Elder Alexander Camp-bell, the distinguished and learned President of Bethany College, Virginia, delivered the arnual address, upon Christian Missions. His treatment of the subject was complete in all its parts. He spoke first of the materials, or the message of the Evangelical Missionary; second, the qualifications necessary to the successful use of these materials; third, the true Missionary spirit and fount the execution. true Missionary spirit, and fourth, the essentials to his success.

The qualifications of the genuine Christian Missionary were given under seven different heads, which were amplified, illustrated and enforced by Scripture references.

Eider John A. Gano followed the address with a short exhortation.

At two o'clock this afternoon a convert of the Jerusalem mission will deliver an address on the duty of Christians to the Jewa; and in the evening the Rev. Mr. Beardslee, just returned from the Jamaica mission, will discourse on the missionary cause in that island.

WAR MATTERS

COL. TAYLOR'S REGIMENT. There are now at Camp Corwine nine hundred and fifty men, and over one thousand horses. The men are all uniformed, but not equipped. This morning a detachment of about three hundred paraded our streets, presenting a remarkably fine appearance. ABMY SUBGEONS.

The Board of Medical Examiners, Doctors Awl, Hamilton and Smith, have concluded their examination of candidates for appointment of Army Surgeons. The following comprise the names of those in our immediate vicinity to whom the Board has awarded Surgeons-Robert Fletcher, M. D., Cincinnati, Ohio; Christian Forster, M. D., Hamilton County, Ohio; M. Litzenberg, M. D., College Hill, Hamilton County, Ohio, Mates—James D. Webb, M. D., Cincinnati, Ohio; Joseph Richardson, M. D., Cincinnati, Henry Mansfred, M. D., Covington, Kentucky.

They also recommended for promotion Charles H. Swain, M. D., now Surgeon's Mate in the Twelfth Ohio Regiment.

INDIANA TROOPS IN RENTUCKY. There are now seventeen full regiments of Indiana troops (infantry) in Kentucky, and three companies of cavalry and one of artillery. They number eighteen thousand one hundred and seventy-eight men.

COLONEL KENNETT'S REGIMENT. Colonel Kennett's Cavalry Regiment, at Camp Gurley, now numbers over eight hun-dred men. The men are only partially uniformed, and bave not yet been furnished with 8T105.

SHIPMENT OF ARMS. Two thousand rifled muskets were yester-day shipped from Miles Greenwood's found-ery, the larger portion of which went to Se-dalia, Mo.

MOVEMENTS OF TROOPS IN MENTUCKY. General Negley's Pennsylvania Brigade, which passed our city on a fleet of boats a day or two since, left the steamers yesterday morning, and proceeded out in the direction of Rousseau's command. The Minnesota Regiment, under command of Colonel Van Cleve, has proceeded to the mouth of Salt River, in conjunction with Colonel Hazzard's Indiana Regiment, which has been in camp near Lawrenceburg.
The following card speaks highly of the discipline and subordination of the troops under the command of Brigacier-General James S. Negley on their passage down the river:

"ON BOARD FLAG-DOAT 'SIR WM, WALLACE,')
October 22, 1861. " It affords us great pleasure to return our sincere thanks to General Jas. S. Negley, and the officers and men under his command, for their soldierly bearing and gentle-manly conduct while on board the fleet, during their trip from Pittsburg to Louis-

"W. J. Kounts, Commander of fleet; Hugh Campbell, Captain of Sir Wm. Wallace; G. W. Reed, Captain of Moderator; Thomas Poe, Captain of Clara Poe; A. McCarty, Captain of J. W. Hailman; J. S. McMillan, Captain of Silver Wave; J. W. Porter, Captain of Argonaut.

Phirteenth Annual Report of the Board of Managers of the American Christain

Elder D. S. Burnet, Corresponding Secretary, this morning read the annual report of the American Christian Missionary Society, from which we make the following extracts The report begins with a notice of the vast field open for missionary labor. "The isles afar off are waiting for the law, and Ethiopia is stretching out her arms for help. The greater wall of China, its non-in-tercourse, has been broken down. There and in Japan four hundred millions are now within the reach of Christian enterprise, and the great West of our continent yet thirsts for the law of God as the wounded and pursued hart pants for the water brooks. The world seems on the eve of expectation, and is sighing for the consolation of Israel!"

Notwithstanding the extent of the field open for missionary enterprise, the receipts of the society during the past year have not been as great as were expected, owing to the unusual expenditure of a thousand millions for war purposes, within the limits of the thirty-four States, the unestimated amount of property destroyed, and the great dimi-nution of industrial pursuits. The contemplated establishment of several churches failed on this account. Nevertheless the prospects of the society are represented as encouraging.

The following statistical abstract is given THE PINANCIAL STATEMENT.

RESULTS.

Making the spiritual results of this year compare most favorably with other years, notwithstanding our receipts have been se riously abridged. The item of receipts in the financial statement given above is left open for contributions to be taken at this meeting.

It now amounts to between five and six bousand dollars. The Board has transmitted $1,750 to Brother Barclay, of the Jerusalem Mission, during the year closing in May last. Bro. Beardslee, of the Jamaica Mission, reports during the month of August fifty eight additions. The general summary makes the number of stations thirteen, members six hundred and thirty-four, and preachers nine, of which, during the last year, there have been added nine churches, four bundred and sixty members and six preachers. Three Sunday-schools are in successful operation. The whole number of laborers employed in domestic missions is thirty one. In Kan-sas and the Neosho Valley there have been four hundred and thirty-six additions.

For the establishment of new missions Africa is spoken of as opening a fine field, as also are the Territories of Nebraska and Colons, the State of California and the em-pires of China and Japan. The report closes with a tribute to the sainted dead who have departed during the year, among whom are enumerated ter Scott, Thurston Crane, Cyrus Bosworth and Judge Casad. RUNAWAY BOYS .- Two boys, answering the descriptions given below, ran away from their parents on the 20th of October. They have since been heard from in Williamsburg, Clermont County: Clermont County: Edward Leffingwell, or Gilbert, is about twelve years and a half old, has dark auburn hair, and is inclined to freckies in the face;

had on light-gray roundabout and pantaloons, with dark stripe down side; wore a black cloth cap. In conversation he is rather diffident, and can not speak his words either plain or proper.

John Morris is twelve years of age, extremely small for years, very light hair and complexion; and was dressed in a dark-jeans suit, old dark overcoat and a brown straw He is a very intelligent lad.

Wilstach, Keys & Co.

Licutenant Billerbeck, from the Guthrie Gray Regiment, arrived in our city this morning. He represents a great many sick in the Kanawba Valley.

INKLINGS. All rumors that have been circulated about the closing of the public schools are, we are assured, without foundation. Four or five wagons loaded with exiles from Tennessee and Southern Kentucky based through our streets yesterday on the way to Oxford, Ohio. They presented a very pitiable appearance, and measures were taken for their partial relief.

Wood's Theater was visited by a number of pickpockets last night. We saw several of he light-fingered gentry arrested, and their rial will appear among the Police Court Hereafter, unlicensed dogs found running at large are to be impounded, in accordance with the new ordinance. A pound has been established on the north side of Poplarstreet, between John and Lynn, and William Taylor has been appointed Pound master.

A deck hand, named Fitzgerald, belonging to the steamer Ailen Collier, was drowned yesterday, by falling from the gangway. Thomas H. Ashcraft's house, on Park-street, near Fourth, was entered by burglars, and a valuable rifle carried off. Colonel S. A. Gilbert, formerly of the Twenty fifth Regiment, has been promoted to the command of the Forty-fourth.

Licutenant Clark, of Springfield, who was Quartermaster for the Second Ohio Regiment in the three months' campaign, is now Major of the Forty-fourth Ohio Regiment. Governor Dennison has subscribed $3,000

A child belonging to Doctor Gross, resid ng on Everett-street, was yesterday severely hitten by a dog.

WAR BUDGET.

COUNTERSIGN SIGNALS. The following general order has been issued by General McClellan from the Head-quarters of the Army of the Potomac, under date of Washington, October 17,

1861: Day and night countersign signals, by which friendly regiments may be distinguished, will be adopted in the Army of the Potomsc. Major Albert J. Meyer, Signal Officer, will take steps to carry out this order upon the plan proposed by him. Adjutants and Color Sergeants of regiments, or others detailed for signal service, will be guided by such instructions as they may receive from the officers in charge of signals at the head-quarters of divisions or separate commands. Commanding officers will afford every facility to the officers detailed as signal instructors. Detailed orders and instructions for the use of countersign signals will be published from these head quarters prior to the first issue of supplies. The efficers in charge of the Staff Departments will furnish such supplies as may be necessary to carry out the design of this order. Day and night countersign signals, by

MAINE PREPARING FOR THE WAR. Recruiting goes forward briskly in Maine, and nine full regiments have already marched to the war. The Eleventh is nearly full, and volunteers are pouring into the Twelfth, which is commanded by Colonel Shapley, to be attached to General Butler's division. Neal Dow has also taken 'no the sword, and Neal Dow has also taken 'up the sword, and commenced recruiting as Colonel of the Thirteenth. The cavalry regiment is nearly full. It will consist of twelve companies of one hundred men each, and is expected to be entirely equipped and ready to take the field in about three weeks. It is commanded by Colonel John Goddard, the leading lumber man of Maine. -Three steamers, the Connecticut, Augusta and Alabama, have sailed from New York in pursuit of the rebel steamer Nashville. Only one of them, the Connecticut, is a fast boat, and as the Nashville has several days' start, they might as well have remained in port. —The change that has taken place in Har-per's Ferry and the thriving village of Boli-var is represented as most sad and shocking. Ruin is every-where visible, and the inhabitants are bowed down with sorrow.

Dr. S. H. Bradley, formerly of New York State, but who has been in practice for some years at Montgomery, Alabama, and who was at Bull Run in the capacity of Surgeon to the Second Alabama Regiment, has arrived in this city, having effected his escape from Dixie after a variety of unpleasant ad-

He, as a Northern man, was not par icularly satisfied with his location in the South after the war broke out, but had to "face the music" up to the time of the battle of Bull Run. On the afternoon of the 21st of July he attempted to escape to the Federal lines, but was detected by the Confederates, and was handcuffed and ironed and sent to Montgomery, where he was kept confined in jail until the 25th of September, when he was released. He then made his way to New Orleans, as the most favorable route for an exodus from rattlesnakedom.

Business at New Orleans (October 1) was perfectly stagnant, but there was considerable activity in the way of preparing defenses for New Orleans against Federal invasion. Guns were being mounted on all the defensible positions of the city. Four thirty-two pounders had been planted upon the top of the Custom-house, which building commands the river for a considerable distance. Twelve pounders had been placed upon the levee and upon the tops of such buildings as were deemed strong enough to stand the concussion of being fired from. A perfectly stagnant, but there was consider-

Edibles and articles of clothing were getting up to a big figure in the way of prices. French cassimere pantaloons sold for $18, about double their price in New York, and other articles of wear in proportion. Fresh beef was from forty cents to fifty cents per round; beef steak fifty cents, and tough at that. Flour was $10 per barrel. Sweet potatoes, however, were cheap enough, being obtainable in any quantity at five cents per bushel. The planters were much dissatisfied with the refusal of the Confederate Government to allow their cotton access to a market.

There was a large crop, but the planters de-clare they will let it rot in the fields before they will go to the expense of gathering it under the unsatisfactory conditions placed upon its sale through the mistaken policy of the Confederate authorities. There is a difficulty about saving the cot-ton crop, on account of the want of bagging and rope to bag it with. Our informant says it is an error that the Confederate currency passes readily in pur-chase of any thing to be sold at the South as reported. There is a discount of at least thirty per cent. on the Confederate paper trash, and for many kinds of goods the merchants take pains to specially advertise that nothing but cash will be taken. This article (cash) is, however, about as scarce there as hen's teeth. On his way North Dr. B. arrived at Jackson, Miss., on the 2d of October, and witnessed a grand review of the Confederate troops there by Governor Pettus. There were some seven thousand white soldiers and a number of negro regiments! The soldiers were pretty well armed, but poorly clad. At Huntsville, Alabama, there was an encampment of some twenty regiments of Confederate soldiers. At Nashville there was quite a force acting as a Home Guard for the defense of that place.

Ex Senator Henry S. Foote was at Nashville, and a violent, loud-mouthed Secessionist. Ex Governor William Brown was also at Nesbville. Though avowedly Secesh, he was believed not to be particularly sound on the Confederate goose, and to really indulge hankerings after the good old Union. At Gallatins, eighteen miles from Mashville, there was a large force of cavalry, under a Nashville lawyer by the name of Ewing. The talk among the rebels there was gen-

Senator Breckinridge was three miles bayond (toward Louisville), with seven thou-sand men, well armed, clothed and shod.

Colonel Albert Rust, of Arkansas (ex-member of Congress), was with him as Colonel of the of Congress), was with him as Colonel of the Fifth Arkansas Regiment.
On his way, Dr. B. encountered the famous fighting Bishop, General Polk, on his way to the scat of war with his troops. Polk is a rigid disciplinarian, and sits up o' nights to perfect himself in military tactics.

At Montgomery, Alabama, the Confederates fired cannon and had fire works and a torch-light procession, on hearing of the death of General Lyon.

A letter, was received from Leonard Swartz, Esq., Commissioner, now in Western Virginia, dated at Buckhannon, Va., ad-dressed to Wm. Ward, County Auditor, protesting against the appointment of E. A. Fergueon, Esq., County Solicitor, he being counsel for one of the contractors of the County. The communication was ordered to be entered on the minutes.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—The Washington Star scription of the fight at Edwards's Ferry says that both wings were attacked as early as nine o'clock A. M., but the enemy was repulsed wherever he appeared. At about five o'clock P. M. the right peared. At about five o'clock P. M. the right wing found itself confronted by nearly four thousand of the enemy, under General Evans, with artillery. General Baker galiantly essayed the charge in which he was killed. The officer left in command immediately ordered the men to fall back near the river bank, where they could be supported by General Stone, and the portions of the army that had at that time effected a cross-ing. The men obeyed in good order, carry-ing off all the dead and wounded. On reaching the point selected, the right wing turned, though under the fire of the enemy, which gradually slackened until midnight, when it ceased. Throughout the night the balance of General Stone's force crossed the river and threw up temporary works, that render his position secure, and enabled him to protect the crossing of the division of General Banks, to be essayed this morning.

The object of General Stone's movement was to enable his command, with General Banke's division, to be safely transferred to Virginia.
Evans attacked Colonel Baker in front and on both flanks. Colonel Coggeswell was probably taken prisoner. Our information so far this morning is that General Banks's army arrived at Mary-land Landing, Edwards's Ferry, last night, and have been crossing the river securely since daylight.

Philabelphia, October 22.— Information received here by private letters, estimate the loss in the killed and wounded at Edwards's Ferry at one hundred and seventy-five.

The President was greatly affected by the death of Colonel Baker. [Special Dispatch to the New York Times.] At the Cabinet meeting to-day it was de-ided not to interfere for the present with General Fremont and his command. Judge Davis, of Illinois, was commis-sioned to take testimony in reference to contracts made in the Western Department, and all bills that he passes will be paid.

He was falling back before the advance of our troops, and would have undoubtedly been totally routed but for the fall of Colonel Baker, which produced a sudden confusion among our troops.

It is a subject of regret that Colonel Baker should have engaged the enemy, when, according to report, he was ordered to make a reconnoissance only, with strict instructions, if attacked, to fall back and not fight.

Colonel Baker made his will on Saturday last, deposited it with Colonel Webb, and when he left for the field, he said to the latter: "I shall participate in battle in forty. latter: "I shall participate in battle in forty-eight hours; if I fall, I request that you take

An effort is making to supersede General

McCiellan with General Halieck, who is on his way here from California. This change would create a new revolution, in military and civil circles, where the greatest confidence is entertained for General McCiellan. Colonel Geary reports that the four men who were killed at the battle of Bolivar who were killed at the battle of Bolivar Hights, were afterward charged upon by the cavalry and stabbed through the body, stripped of all their clothing, not excepting shoes and stockings, and left in perfect nudity. One was laid out in the form of crucifixion, with his hands spread and cut through the palms with a dull knife.

ROLLA, Mo., October 23.— Lieutenant Kirby, with fifteen men of Major Wright's battalion, had another fight with forty-five rebels, near Linn Creek, on the 17th, killing five of them and wounding about a dozen.

The result of Major Wright's march from Rolla to Linn Creek can be summed up as Colonel Taylor, in command of the rebel forces at Springfield, recently issued a proclamation, declaring that all Union men who had belonged to the Home Guards would be required to leave the country or go into the Southern army for the same length of time they had served in the Federal army, and requiring a pledge from the Union men now there for the exemplary conduct of their friends who are absent from home.
